

Travel differently

along the waters of the Nile and the Red Sea

11 days and 10 nights

Discovering Egypt

3 nights in Luxor, followed by 7 nights aboard a yacht on the Red Sea.

You set off to discover the largest open-air museum in the world, before diving into the turquoise waters of Sataya Bay.

You will experience the rare privilege of swimming with dolphins in their natural habitat and feeling their energy. Let yourself be amazed by their presence and savor the power of these timeless moments.

Far from your everyday concerns

In a setting designed to inspire, you offer yourself a unique pause to step back, reconnect with yourself, and make space for what truly matters. A space to look honestly at what no longer serves you and welcome what is ready to emerge for 2027.

Welcome the new year differently

Experience this transition into the new year in a unique way: taking stock, letting things mature, letting go, and simply resting without digital distractions.

Let yourself be carried

Enjoy a refined, elegant, and comforting setting, thoughtfully created so that you can truly let go. Let yourself be carried by the beauty of the places, the strength of nature, and the soothing presence of the animals.

Gentle guidance throughout

If you feel drawn to it, this space can also support your reflections, bring clarity to your projects, and help you define your next steps with greater accuracy, confidence, and vision.
